ONAP TRAINING
Development Planning Part 2:
Pre-Development & Construction

VIRTUAL TRAINING

November 12-13, 2026 | 9am – 3pm Pacific Time

TRAINING

This 2-day virtual training will provide attendees with education on project implementation, management, and the construction process. It will build on the overview presented in Part 1, with a focus on the project development phases of planning, procurement, construction, and closeout.

Note: This foundational course will acquaint Tribal and TDHE staff with the basic requirements of Development Planning and opportunities that are available. This is the second session of a 3-part series on Development Planning. Part 3 will be delivered virtually from December 1-2, 2026.

TRAINING REGISTRATION

Registration for this training is at no cost to Tribal housing professionals, but you must register to attend. Registration is available online at https://bit.ly/DevPlanningPart2_Nov2026_Registration.

TECHNOLOGY NEEDED

The training will be presented via an online platform. Participants will need a smart device (computer, laptop, tablet, or phone) with internet or WiFi connection.

INSTRUCTIONS AND MATERIALS

An email with the training material link(s) and final instructions will be sent by Friday, November 6, 2026.

TRAINER

Jason Adams & Lorna Fogg

Jason Adams and Lorna Fogg bring decades of leadership and expertise in affordable housing development, particularly in Indian Country. Jason Adams has over 25 years of experience in tribal housing, including more than two decades with the Salish Kootenai Housing Authority where he served as Housing Development Manager and later Executive Director. Lorna Fogg has worked in the tax credit and affordable housing industry since 1995, holding senior roles including Director of Acquisitions at Raymond James Tax Credit Funds, President/CEO of Travois Inc., and partner at VitalSpirit LLC. Together, they contribute extensive experience in tribal housing development, financing strategies, tax credit programs, and technical assistance to support tribes and housing authorities in expanding affordable housing opportunities.
